NEW BID TO REVIVE TALKS S DISCLOSED

BULLETIN

London, (AP)—John Foster Dulles proposed today that all of the United States, all of the Soviet Union and most of Europe be exposed to aerial and ground inspection as a safeguard against sneak nuclear attacks. Speaking on behalf of the West, the U. S. secretary of state broadened the West's "open skies" proposal in a dramatic bid to break an East-West deadlock in the U. N. subcommittee on disarmament. Dulles had worked four days to get agreement on the plan among the Western members of the subcommittee — Britain, France, Canada and the United States. There had been broad but incomplete agreement before President Eisenhower sent him here Monday to put steam into the talks.

By WATSON SIMS

London, (AP)—U. S. Secretary of State Dulles, in a bid to revive disarmament talks, placed before the U. N. subcommittee today a Western plea to guard against surprise nuclear attacks. Officials had disclosed before that it provided for a globe-girdling inspection system, linking (Turn to Page Six)

Last United States Ground Forces Are Evacuating Japan

Washington, (AP)—The last U. S. ground division is pulling out of Japan after nearly 12 years after landing there as a conqueror.

The withdrawal of the Army's 1st Cavalry Division was announced today by the Defense Department. It said the action carries a pledge by President Eisenhower last June that all U. S. ground troops would leave Japan within the year.

Actual completion of the ground force withdrawal is expected within a few weeks when the 9th Regiment of the 3rd Marine Division, shipped from Japan to Okinawa.

This will leave about 17,000 American service personnel in Japan. They are mostly men attached to units of the Air Force and the Marine air wing. At its peak, the American occupation force totaled nearly 300,000.

The 1st Cavalry's divisional designation will be attached to units now in the 24th Division in Korea. The 24th then will be dropped from the Army's list of active divisions.

FOUL TACTICS

Philadelphia, (AP)—Philadelphia police are searching for robbers who used a hunk of cheese as a weapon. Cab driver John Evans says he picked up two fares and suddenly one of them hit him in the mouth with a handful of cheese. The other slugged him with a lead pipe, Evans says, and escaped with $20.

ATOMIC TEST POSTPONED

Increase In F. H. A. Home Loan Interest Rates Is Forecast

Washington, (AP)—Another increase in F. H. A. home loan interest rates is imminent, congressional leaders said today.

Senators said they expect a boost of 50 to 55 percent in the interest rate to be announced soon with approval of lower payments and new controls at a discount—of which may be charged on mortgage loans in the Federal Housing Administration.

Low interest rates were mentioned in connection with the rate increase, but it was current that an anti-inflation bill might be made before September. Firm loan commitments already made presumably would not be affected.

Hospital Harvests Bumper Crop of Oats

Mother Nature has been good to Warren County farms this year. At Warren State Hospital, for instance, after getting a bumper first hay crop in very early, the men took right after the oats and yesterday were combining the 20-acre field east of Conewago Creek at the hospital bridge. Clayton McClintock is running the tractor, Alfred Davies the combine. Agricultural agent for the county reports an excellent first hay crop is already in throughout the county, and some farmers are making a second crop already. Oats are mostly ready and looking good, the agent stated, adding that even pastures have not yet felt the usual August dryness and still look green and fresh. Last summer there was nothing but rain and poor yield, less than half in most instances. Timesphoto.

$3,000,000,000 Earmarked To Be Spent On Highways

Washington, (AP)—The government today earmarked nearly three billion dollars to be spent on the national highway program in the 12 months starting in mid-1958.

The 2,875,000,000 appropriated to the various states includes two billion dollars to continue work on the 41,000-mile network of limited access superhighways. These include superhighways will link 90 percent of all cities with a population of 50,000 or more. The program calls for their completion in about 16 years.

The Bureau of Public Roads appropriated $393,750,000 for the federal-aid primary system. This system, in existence for many years, includes almost all main roads used in inter-city travel, it is 235,000 miles in length.

A total of $262,500,000 was appropriated to the federal-aid secondary system of farm-to-market and (Turn to Page Six)

Corry Housekeeper Is Held On Charge of Assault With Intent To Kill After Shooting Boss

A 39-year-old Corry housekeeper, who said she thought a gun of her would only go "click," today is facing assault with intent to kill charges while her boss fights for his life with a shattered .22 slug in his brain.

According to the story pieced together by Corry police, Mrs. Edna May Terwilliger and her boss, Glen King, 48, of Corry were lying on a couch in the housekeeper's Corry home yesterday afternoon watching television.

Police said both had been drinking and, King, suddenly angered by a statement that Edna wanted to see her husband from whom she is separated, poked her in the nose. "I ought to kill you," the stunned woman is reported to have said.

At that point, King obligingly went into the other room and loaded a single-shot 22 rifle. The housekeeper, seated on the couch, took the gun which was offered to her. When she pointed it at his stomach, King said "Don't shoot me there. You'll cripple me." So she shot him in the head.

The woman claimed she did not think the gun was loaded, thought it would only go "click." First indication that the victim wasn't fooling, she said, was when he lay on the floor and said: "Quick, call the hospital."

She is in Erie County jail. Her former home was at 311 West Congress Street, Corry. The housekeeper, who signed a statement of events leading up to the crime, will face murder charges if King dies, according to the DA.

The victim is in serious condition at Hamot Hospital in Erie where he was taken for a brain operation by a specialist after preliminary treatment at Corry Hospital.

Scores Injured On Crowded Subway In Philadelphia

Philadelphia, (AP)—A blast rocked a six-car Broad street subway train during the morning rush hour today, injuring scores and causing panic in the underground tube.

The three hospitals to which the injured were taken said none had been hurt seriously.

Many suffered cuts from smashed subway train windows. Others were treated for shock.

The Philadelphia Transportation Co. said the blast came after the motor of the lead car on the passenger-jammed train short circuited, causing a circuit breaker to explode.

The blast and minor fire in the lead car caused many of the passengers to smash windows in the subway cars and scramble out to the Erie Avenue platform. Many wandered to the street level and were given sedatives at nearby drug stores.

Edward Caswell, 40-year-old motorman of the subway train, said the blast derailed the lead car of the eight-car train, which was jammed with work-bound passengers, many of them standing.

Marilyn Monroe Loses Her Baby by Operation

New York, (AP)—Marilyn Monroe lost her baby by an operation, a medical source close to the case said today.

The 31-year-old blonde movie star was rushed to Doctors Hospital yesterday for treatment of a threatened miscarriage. She was brought by ambulance 106 miles from her Long Island summer home at Amagansett.

With her was her husband, playwright Arthur Miller. After she was admitted to the hospital, one of Miss Monroe's doctors said she was "five or six weeks pregnant and is expecting her child at the end of March."

The medical source, who refused to be identified, told a reporter an hourlong operation was performed on the actress last night.

CUBA IS HELD UNDER STRICT MILITARY RULE

Havana, (AP)—President Fulgenio Batista's army held Cuba under strict military rule today after anti-Batista demonstration in the rebel city of Santiago de Cuba.

Comments on the demonstration and the situation in Cuba by Earl E. T. Smith, the new U. S. ambassador, brought a fusillade of criticism from political leaders loyal to the President.

Batista's Cabinet suspended constitutional guarantees for 45 days and immediately directed the army to take control of Santiago capital of Oriente province and a hotbed of anti-Batista sentiment.

A general strike had been called in the city to protest police action in dispersing Wednesday's demonstration. Most places of business were closed, although police forced some food stores to reopen. Port operations were halted and banks were shut down.

A cafe near Santiago that had remained open was hit by gunfire and hand grenades hurled from two automobiles last night.

Army reinforcements also were reported sent to Bucayito, another town in Oriente province, where a band of rebels was said to have burned an army post.

Censorship again was clamped on local and incoming foreign newspapers and radio stations and on outgoing news dispatches. Stories sent abroad were being delayed as much as six hours.

Specifically banned was publication or transmission of news implying support for the rebels led by Fidel Castro. Also banned was news on work stoppages promoted by labor unions or employers.

Full constitutional guarantees had been restored to Cuba's six million people April 15 after a 45-day suspension. Yesterday's new decree was the fourth time that constitutional rights have been lifted since Castro and a band of followers landed in eastern Cuba last Dec. 2 and launched a guerrilla campaign against the government.

79-Year-Old Woman Dies In Crash At Punxsutawney

Punxsutawney, (AP)—A 79-year-old woman was killed last night by her auto as she tried to stop it from drifting downhill.

The victim was Mrs. Esther Averill of Punxsutawney.

She and her passengers, Mrs. Polley Neil and Mrs. Elma Kelso, also both of Punxsutawney, stopped along a township road six miles west of Punxsutawney to ask directions.

State police said Mrs. Averill was outside the car when it began to drift. Police said she attempted to stop the car and was hit. The car continued across the road, struck an embankment and overturned. Mrs. Neil and Mrs. Kelso were treated for minor injuries.

New Trials Sought By Four Defendants In Turnpike Case

Harrisburg, (AP)—Motions for a new trial have been filed in behalf of four of five men convicted of conspiring to defraud the Pennsylvania Turnpike Commission of 19½ million dollars.

The motions were filed in Dauphin County Court yesterday by attorneys for Thomas J. Evans of Coaldale, former Republican chairman of the commission; James F. Torrance of Export, suspended commissioner and onetime state Republican chairman; Charles W. Strickler Jr., president of Manu-Mine Research and Development Co. at Reading; and Paul J. McNeil of West Reading, former commission finance director.

The four and Clayton A. Landside of Shillington, former Manu-Mine vice president and general manager, were convicted July 26 of conspiracy. Four other men were acquitted. Evans and Torrance were also found guilty of misconduct in office and Stiekler and Landside of fraudulent pretenses.

Judge Homer L. Kreider gave the attorneys 45 additional days to file reasons in support of the motions.

Newspapers in Future To Have Good Aroma

Los Angeles, (AP)—In the not-too-distant future your favorite newspaper may not only read well but smell good too.

The Printing Industries Association of Los Angeles says it is now possible to print food ads that smell like fried chicken and wedding announcements that have the scent of orange blossoms.

The PIA said more than 120 distinct aromas can now be incorporated into modern printing procedures.

Grandson of Former Phila. Mayor Kills Two And Suicides

Philadelphia, (AP)—The grandson of a former Philadelphia mayor killed his wife and sister-in-law, then committed suicide in his luxurious suburban Philadelphia apartment last night.

Police Chief Fred Roberts of Delaware County said Paul Warwick Jr., well-to-do Lansdowne, Pa., businessman, shot his wife Josephine, 35-year-old former ballet dancer, with a .38-caliber pistol, then killed her sister Mary McCann, 32. Warwick, 36, then fired a bullet into his own head, Chief Roberts said.

No motive for the shooting could be established immediately. The slayings were not discovered until late last night when the mother and sister of the dead women arrived for a visit at the apartment.

Warwick was the grandson of the late Charles F. Warwick, Republican mayor of Philadelphia from 1895 to 1899. His father, a prominent Merion, Pa., investment banker, died in 1953. Warwick was part owner of a garden supplies store.

Police said Warwick and Miss McCann were found in the living room with his body stretched across hers. Mrs. Warwick's body was found on the landing outside the apartment.

Miner Is Sought For the Murder of Masontown Grocer

Masontown, (AP)—State police combed the Fayette County area today for a 29-year-old miner who is charged with murder in the strangling of an 81-year-old grocer last Monday.

The man wanted is Joseph Watreas, Jr., of Masontown. He hasn't been seen since last Monday when the body of Alvie O. Partridge was found in the grocery he had operated for 45 years.

James Eadie, chief Fayette County detective, filed a murder warrant against Watreas late yesterday. Watreas is married and the father of a 3-year-old son. He has been employed as a maintenance worker at a U. S. Steel Corp. mine in nearby Karen.

Officers said they found fingerprints in the grocery store which matched those of Watreas. They added that Watreas has been wanted on a warrant charging him with passing bad checks.

Partridge's body was found by a customer. His hands were tied behind his back and he had been strangled with a piece of wire similar to that used in nearby mining operations.

Brakes Fail and Truck Runs into Freight Train

Massillon, Ohio, (AP)—Brakes failed as a truck loaded with gravel sped down a steep grade toward a 96-car freight train crossing Ohio early today.

The truck smashed the 74th car and derailed 19 cars of the Pennsylvania Railroad train at the crossing 2½ miles north of here.

The driver of the truck, Walter A. Shelton, 28, of Mansfield, and a passenger both jumped before the collision and escaped injury.

KNOWLAND DECLARES BILL PROBABLY DEAD ISSUE FOR THIS SESSION OF CONGRESS

BULLETIN

Washington, (AP)—President Eisenhower said today the jury trial provision added to the civil rights bill by the Senate threatens to weaken the nation's judicial system. And he said it will make the bill "largely ineffective" in protecting the rights of all Americans to vote. Eisenhower previously pictured by Sen. Potter (R-Mich.) as "damned unhappy" over the Senate action, gave his views in a statement marked by sharp language. He said the 51-42 vote that guaranteed jury trials in criminal contempt cases would be "bitterly disappointing" to many millions of Americans in that it would have the effect of leaving great numbers of qualified voters disenfranchised.

Washington, (AP)—President Eisenhower was pictured today as "damned unhappy" about the Senate vote adding a jury trial amendment to the civil rights bill. Sen. Knowland (R-Calif.) said the action probably means the bill is dead for this year.

Sen. Potter (R-Mich.) reported on Eisenhower's reaction after a call at the White House this morning to discuss another matter with the President. Without elaborating Potter told newsmen "the President is damn unhappy" about losing the fight against the jury trial amendment.

Knowland's view that the bill may be dead as far as this session of Congress is concerned was not shared by some other backers of the bill. And Sen. Russell (D-Ga.) held out a possibility that some Southern opponents may even vote for the bill if a few more changes are made.

Knowland, the Senate Republican leader, told reporters he had "no alibi" for the 51-52 vote by which the Senate adopted the jury trial amendment shortly after midnight.

"I just didn't have the votes," he said.

Adoption of the jury trial amendment, he said, probably means that any measure the Senate passes will be tied up in a Senate-Mouse disagreement. The House had rejected any provision for jury trials.

On the dramatic roll call vote, witnessed by spectators who crammed the Senate gallery, the party lineup was 39 Democrats and 12 Republicans for the amendment and 9 Democrats and 33 Republicans against it.

HOW SENATORS VOTED

Washington, (AP)—Sen. Martin (R) and Sen. Clark (D), of Pennsylvania, both voted against the jury trial amendment to the civil rights bill. The amendment carried 51-42.

This was a wider margin of victory for the jury trial advocates than had been anticipated.

But approval of the amendment had been foreshadowed when, at mid-afternoon yesterday, Senate Democratic Leader Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas announced that the vote might come at any time. Johnson had been working feverishly behind the scenes to line up enough votes for the proposal. His announcement was taken as a signal he had succeeded.

Only two senators were absent on the roll call vote.

Sen. Payne (R-Maine) flew in from Maine, where he has been recovering from a heart ailment, and Sen. Hennings (D-Mo.), who has been absent after an operation, also appeared. Both voted against the amendment.

The amendment would provide for jury trials in criminal contempt cases arising from injunctions the attorney general would be empowered to obtain to enforce voting rights. It also would apply in labor cases and others involving federal court injunctions.

President Eisenhower had restated only Wednesday his opposition to any such amendment.

Wood Terms Shapiro "No Grass Cutting" Order As Ridiculous

Harrisburg, (AP)—The chairman of the House Appropriations Committee said today that Secretary of Welfare Harry Shapiro has urged mental hospital superintendents to let the grass grow at their institutions "just to make the Republican Legislature look bad."

Rep. Norman Wood (R-Lancaster) made the statement on his return from an inspection of a number of mental hospitals. Wood made the tour after a similar one by Shapiro, who conferred with superintendents on economy measures, including cuts in manpower.

Shapiro, Wood said in a statement, "Wants to have the state institutions under the Welfare Department to have a run down upon to the public to bolster his unfounded claim that the Legislature, when it increased appropriations to his departments by 20 million dollars over what was spent in the past, 'short-changed' the mentally ill."

Wood termed Shapiro's no grass cutting order "ridiculous" and said the grass at most institutions "is cut by patients as part of the hospital's occupational therapy program."

Wood said he found on his visits to the mental hospitals that "most of the complaints are directed against the orders from the Harrisburg offices of the Welfare Department rather than the Legislature."

Hospital administrators told him, Wood said, that funds appropriated by the Legislature "will be sufficient to continue present programs without curtailment or the necessity of firing anyone, unless ordered to do so by Secretary Shapiro."

AIRLINE ANNOUNCEMENT

Allegheny Airlines will resume its flight schedule at Jamestown Tuesday, Sept. 3. Leslie O. Barnes, president of the line, told Mayor Carl F. Sanford Thursday afternoon, following an inspection of the runway restressing project at the airport. Barnes was "tremendously pleased" with the runway, Mayor Sanford said, adding the city will have definitely increased service from the airlines when service again begins. Schedules have not been made up yet, the Mayor said, so Barnes was unable to tell what service Jamestown will have when the airline again sends flights in and out of Jamestown Municipal Airport. There will be day and nighttime service, when it is again resumed, and a larger Martin Executive plane will probably make the first flight, the Mayor said. In the past, Allegheny has been flying DC-3's, a smaller plane, on Jamestown runs.

REWARD FOR BEING TARDY

Titusville Herald: To help build their sewage treatment plants, Oil City and Warren will each receive a quarter of a million dollars from the United States Public Health Service. They were found eligible for the grant after meeting all the requirements of the law.

Titusville, which got busy on its sewage plant a full year ahead of its neighbors, will receive nothing. So, because their city officials dilly-dallied instead of buckling right down to work, taxpayers in Oil City and Warren will be relieved of paying—directly—a large share of the cost of their plants.

And further: because the $250,000 is Federal money, it will come out of the pockets of taxpayers all over the United States—and that means Titusville.

In short, Titusville taxpayers will pay all the cost of their own plant, plus a share of the Oil City and Warren plants, simply because Titusville officials refused to put off the job until tomorrow and did it today.

This cancels out all the maxims we ever learned about thrift, promptness, the value of time and so on. Instead a new maxim will take their place: Be a little lazy and get rewarded for it.

But seriously, we're not angry. Just jealous. And also pleased with the prospects of a cleaner Allegheny River after our neighbors' plants are in operation.

GALA DAYS AT LANDER

Gala Days at Lander got away to an enthusiastic start last evening with an interesting Pet Parade presenting 35 or 40 entries that moved just about on time and was thoroughly enjoyed by the spectators gathered along the route. An Old-Fashioned day program is on tap for this evening: tomorrow afternoon amateur horse-pulling contest and tomorrow evening the grand parade. The Lander Fire Department and area citizens up that way are to be commended for their enterprise in staging this annual event.

The picture on Page One of this issue reminds that Warren county farmers are presently engaged in harvesting bumper crops after a season of what has been described as ideal growing conditions.

Fortunately that rumor of a drowning in the river last evening turned out to be false, and the boys stranded on an island were never in any danger.

Matter Of Fact:

Hope on Algeria?

By JOSEPH ALSOP

Paris—The French government is now rather unhappily re-examining its own policy in Algeria. The final result will only be known in September, but the two possible outcomes are already quite easily foreseeable.

Either the present re-examination will be transformed into the beginning of a serious attempt to find an agreed solution of the agonizing Algerian problem, or the meeting of the United Nations Assembly in September will produce a blow-up inside the Western Alliance almost on the scale of the Suez crisis. The reasons for these alternatives are simple indeed.

In brief, in anticipation of the UN Assembly session, where Algeria will be the major item on the agenda, the French have been sounding out the American and British governments on the possibilities of securing their support. The chief sounding-out expedition was the trip to Washington of the able permanent under-Secretary of the French Foreign Office, Louis Joxe.

In a series of long, frank and friendly conversations, Secretary of State John Foster Dulles in effect told Joxe that the United States very much wanted to support France once again in the UN, but Dulles added firmly that France would have to propose some kind of Algerian solution that the United States could in all honesty endorse.

The best solution, Dulles insisted, would be one that Tunis and Morocco would also agree to endorse. This would mean recognizing the aspirations of the native Algerians, typing an at least semi-independent reorganized Algeria to Tunis and Morocco, and finally tying all three countries to France.

Secretary Dulles did not insist, however, that the new French proposals for Algeria should have Tunisian and Moroccan backing. He only insisted that the proposals must be serious, in the sense of offering some hope of producing eventual peace.

Last year, he pointed out, the United States had backed the plan (Turn to Last Page)

Here and There

An exchange has it figured out that Mr. Motorist would have to pay $31.68 in tolls to drive over the entire 2,190 miles of the nation's major turnpikes. . . . That information comes from the American Automobile Association. . . . It averages out to one and one-half cents per mile, the equivalent of adding 21 cents per gallon to the gasoline tax of motorists using the toll roads, the AAA says. . . . The AAA, which favors making all turnpikes in the interstate and defense highway system toll free, says the cheapest rate is 1.08 cents per mile on our Pennsylvania Turnpike. . . . The most expensive, 2.22 cents, is on Florida's Miami-Fort Pierce Turnpike. . . .

Getting back to the program that was under way just sixty years ago to acquire the property at Second avenue and Market street for the new High School building, this item from The Warren Mirror of August 2, 1897, makes timely and interesting reading today: "The buildings located on the school property at the corner of Market and Second streets were offered for sale to the highest bidder this afternoon at two o'clock. The main part of the old Ludlow Hotel was struck down to Robert DeVore, of the East Side, for fifty cents. The new part of the hotel went to J. E. Hultberg for forty dollars. He will remove it to the corner of Market and Short streets. There were no bids on the Besecker and Clark houses nor for the barn. The buildings will be removed within two weeks."

Twenty-two million persons, approximately one-eighth of the nation's population, were admitted to hospitals as patients last year, the American Hospital Association reports in an Associated Press dispatch from Chicago. The association's current issue of "Hospitals" says the admissions showed an increase of 41 per cent over 1946 and nearly 5 per cent over 1955. The 1946 rate was 112 admissions per thousand population. It increased to 132 per thousand in 1956. The number of births last year in the 6,966 hospitals covered in the survey totaled 3,491,141, an increase of 64 per cent over 1946 but only 1 per cent above the 1955 figure.

The same column reveals the truth on watermelons, at last—expose. "The popular and unfounded superstition that the watermelon is dangerous fruit is becoming pretty thoroughly exploded. . . . It is good for you if it is eaten fresh from the vine, continued the article. But woe to the man who drinks butter-milk, or malt liquor, for instance. Actually the trouble begins with eating green watermelons.

Smoking, pro and con, is being tossed all around the country these days. From the manufacturer, consumer, doctors and anyone else who wants to have a good argument. In 1887, they were debating of softening of the brain, not cancer of the lungs in 1957, which smoking is supposed to have a hand in. A bone tickler went like this: "Young man: Is it true, doctor, that smoking cigarettes tends to soften the brain?" Physician: "There is a belief to that effect, but with all our boasted modern scientific appliances it can never be verified." Young man: "Why, Doctor?" Physician: "Because nobody with brains ever smokes them."

Statistics show that in 1954 in making cigars, cigarettes, chewing tobacco and snuff, a total of 214,567,803 pounds of unstemmed leaf, 843,278,577 pounds of stemmed leaf and 78,381,295 pounds of scraps, cuttings and clippings. Of this amount 49,878,743 pounds of unstemmed leaf, 30,100,582 pounds of stemmed leaf and 35,035,974 pounds of scraps, cuttings and clippings went into cigars, and 94,483,981 pounds of unstemmed leaf, 782,089,005 pounds of stemmed leaf and 25,333,014 pounds of scraps, cuttings, and clippings into cigarettes.

A hungry, happy group—Salvationists who attended the Salvation Army annual family picnic Saturday at Celoron. These 60 boys and girls, along with 20 adults, consumed six cases of soft drinks, countless sandwiches, pots of baked beans, 50 half-pints of chocolate milk, 20 quarts of ice cream, and pounds of Senior Major Schaffer's goulash. New York (AP)—Just as lovers develop their own language, so do businessmen.

For that matter so do circus performers, soda jerks, college professors, psychiatrists, and men who rise early in the morning to open up banks with a gun.

Some individuals even—such as Sam Goldwyn—develop a private lingo that becomes a public joy.

But right now greatest interest centers in two weird and wonderful languages—one spoken by the teen-ager, the other by the man in the gray flannel suit.

This second language—now known as "businessman's bebop"—originated in the ivory tower of advertising has spread throughout all industry with the speed of chickenpox in a kindergarten.

Edward M. Meyers, a merchandising and sales promotion expert, has collected a number of these "gray flannelsms" overheard in conferences in many executive suites.

Here are a few, selected at random, for the young go-getter who wants to pep up his conference vocabulary:

"What this idea needs is more of an idea."

"Let's stick antlers on it and see if it scratches."

"As long as the bass doesn't have to do it nothing is impossible."

"Let's put it on a scale and see if it's gained any weight."

"Let's get down to where the rubber meets the road."

"It needs a transfusion and the account executive isn't our blood type."

"Let's not just stand around with our backs against the hot pipes."

"Let's follow it down the road and see what it eats."

"I don't know about the rest of you, but I'm ready to pitch a tent and dig for worms."

"Let's drive it into the parking lot and see if we dent any fenders."

"Let's hang on to the tail. You can never tell where it will wag us."

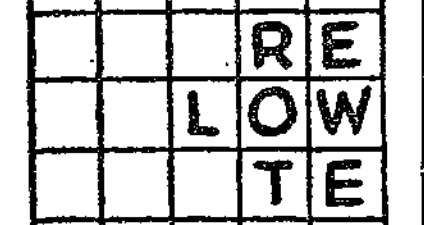

"Let's forget it before we file it."

Let's!

MR. AND MRS. FRED HENNESSY, JR.

Charlene Prigent, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marcel Prigent, 20th street, became the bride of Fred W. Hennessy, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred W. Hennessy, Clarendon RD. 1, in a double ring ceremony at 11 a. m. July 27 in Holy Redeemer church, Father Robert Shian officiating.

The altar was decorated with white mums, gladioli and candles. Mrs. Thomas Donnelly furnished additional wedding music at the organ and Richard Smith was vocalist.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, selected floor length white nylon tulle and chantilly lace, featuring a Saccina necklace in a lace bodice with brief sleeves, the tulle skirt featuring alternating lace and tulle cascading at the sides and tulle. Her fingertip veil of illusion silk from a pearl headress, and she carried a white prayer book with white roses and lily of the valley streamers.

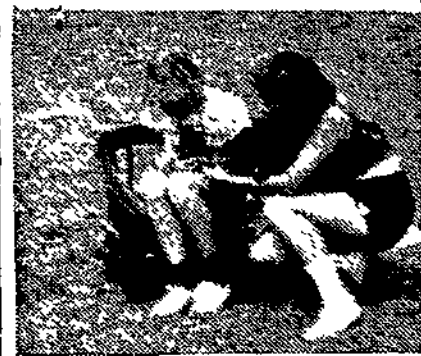

Maid of honor was Valerie Urkett, of Easton, Md.; bridesmaids, Diane Eggleston, Carol Aglimbene and Cynthia Barker, of from Warren; Jill Ann Warner, of from Warren; served as flower girl. All were dressed similarly in coral chiffon over taffeta with tiered bodice and draped necklines ending in flying panels over offcut floor length skirts. Matching picture hats were of mesh horsehair braid.

Best man was Robert Hennessy; ushers were Charles Prigent, John Hennessy and Neil Rickerson; Robert Hennessy, Jr., was ring bearer.

The bride's mother chose a powder blue silk and lace dress with white accessories; the bride's mother, powder blue tulle and white accessories, each with an orchid.

Farrah Grotto Camp Guest

This camp is one of several in the state where handicapped children may go for a summer stay to enjoy camp life. "Candy" was the guest of Farrah Grotto for several months' of camp life and reports she had a wonderful time, enjoying particularly the handicrafts, swimming, dancing, hiking, and cook-outs.

These camps, which are, namely, Camp Daddy Allen, at Hickory Run State Park; Camp Easter Seal, at Laurel Hill State Park, and Camp Lend-A-Hand, provide these children with the opportunity to enjoy normal camp life, in addition to getting full schedules of treatments that most of them require periodically. A full complement of professional counselors, nurses, cooks, and attendants look after all of the needs of these youngsters. The camps are sponsored by the Pennsylvania Society For Crippled Children and Adults, Inc. (The Easter Seal Society) of which the local chapter is an affiliate. Farrah Grotto of Warren was indeed happy to have little Candy as its guest at the camp, as it is one of the projects of the Grotto, not only locally but through the Grotto National Cerebral Palsy Fund, to aid these children in any possible way.

First Methodist Guest

The Rev. George H. McGhee of Slippery Rock, who was pastor of Epworth Methodist church here from 1952 until 1955 and is well known throughout the community, will be guest minister at the 11:00 a. m. Sunday worship service in First Methodist church and his friends are cordially invited to enjoy his message on the topic "So Much With So Little".

Soloist for the service will be Arthur Laurell of Corry, radio and Chicago Opera Company singer and a noted oratorio baritone, whose selections will be "It Is Enough" from Mendelssohn's "Elijah" and "The Twenty-third Psalm" by Malotte. At the organ, George A. Johnson will play "The Bells of Aberdovey" by Stewart and "Chorale in B Minor" by Franck.

Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Ross, Kinzua, announce the engagement of their youngest daughter, Rochelle, to Lance Mohny, nephew of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Mohny, also of Kinzua. Both are 1954 graduates of Warren High School. Miss Ross recently returned from California, where she spent most of the past year with her sister, Mrs. Joseph Prosen of Hayward, and is employed by Pennsylvania Electric Company. Mr. Mohny, discharged from the U. S. Marine Corps in June, plans to attend Mt. Union College in Ohio this fall. No wedding date has been named.

Status of the Pittsfield Memorial Park Issue in Court Litigation

TRANQUIL, TROUBLESOME TRIANGLE—This peaceful triangular plot of ground known as Pittsfield Memorial Park has stirred up more heated debate than just about anything else in the history of the community. Robert Lynn of Jamestown, son and heir of the man who helped erect the veterans' monument and placed it in his front yard, says he owns all the property. Pittsfield claims it owns the stretch which begins behind the tree at left center and cuts diagonally behind the monument to the road at right. Judge Flick will review the case in court Monday afternoon, beginning at 2 p. m. The park is located two blocks north of the blinker light in Pittsfield.

In the beginning—a misunderstanding. Leon H. Gavin lending his dignified presence.

After that, in a cankerous competition, hard words, hard feelings, test case, sentence, appeal.

Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock the whole issue will be brought in full public view in an appeal in Warren County Court before Judge Alexander C. Flick, Jr.

At that time, Attorney C. Henry Nicholson will present the appeal of a "destroying public property" charge brought against Robert Lynn who last summer was sentenced to 60 days in jail and fined $50 for his yet-to-be-proved offense.

It started, patriotically enough, in hearts dedicated to the ideal after a bloody World War II that those honored veterans of Pittsfield should not be forgotten. Emmett Lynn, late father of the defendant, contributed much time and effort to the procuring and placing of a suitable stone monument which was duly dedicated on Labor Day, 1949, with Representative

First the police, then the Times-Mirror got an accident report twisted yesterday. Where it was reported that gallant Frederick A. McKinney, 17, of RD 1, Youngsville was struck in the rear by Norman Yeagle, 37, of 426 Rankin avenue, it should have stated that gallant Norman Yeagle, 37, of 426 Rankin avenue was struck in the rear by Frederick A. Passers-by were curious today about the tractor and flatbed-trailer, complete with truck cement mixing unit, which was parked in front of Hanna Motor Sales all morning and part of the afternoon with the engine running. A few discreet inquiries by a sly Times-Mirror reporter revealed the driver sitting nearby waiting for a telegram from the front office. "Can't turn the engine off," quoth the driver, "because then it wouldn't start."

a "limited open skies" observation plan with ground inspection posts in Europe, Russia and North America.

Primarily American in origin, it had been endorsed in advance by Britain, France and Canada, Western members of the five-nation U. N. subcommittee on disarmament. Russia is the other member.

The 69-year-old American cabinet officer decided to present the plan personally in an effort to lend emphasis to the proposal.

By replacing Harold E. Stassen, the U. S. delegate, at the subcommittee session, Dulles brought the weight of his own authority and that of President Eisenhower's to the table. It was a climax to a whirlwind five-day visit to London ordered by the President.

The open skies proposal for aerial inspection of each other's territory by Russian and American planes originally was made at the Geneva summit conference in 1955 by President Eisenhower.

The idea for international ground inspectors at key ports, rail junctions, frontier areas and airports came first from Soviet Premier Nikolai Bulganin.

Before flying back to Washington tonight, Dulles was to make a television and radio broadcast to Britain.

Informants said Dulles would renew the offer to open up all American territory in return for ground and air inspection rights over all of the Soviet Union—a proposal turned down by the Kremlin.

But Dulles reportedly also will provide an alternative. The alternative would call for an inspection area of European and Arctic zones—from Britain east to the Ural Mountain boundary of European Russia, and an Arctic zone to take in northern parts of Russia, Siberia and North America. The latter zone would be subject to expansion by agreement from the West and the Soviets.

Dulles, who flew here Monday at Eisenhower's direction, has

Baby Sitting Drunks

LONDON—John Richards and Harold White-side were fined a total of $8.40 Saturday on conviction of charges they got drunk while babysitting.

I'm only a dog, but it does seem to me that these humans who leave children with someone else while they are away from home, would at least be sure they are not drinkers. Imagine getting drunk while taking care of someone else's kiddies...it jes' shows when you get some of that alcohol inside, and it goes straight to the brain, what humans will do. None for me, but then I'm just a dog.

RAGS

The Indiana Christian Presiding Judge Vernon Hunt of the Municipal Court told a meeting of Presbyterian Church leaders recently, as quoted in the Los Angeles Times: "Seldom do we hear from the pulpit these days that drinking is wrong. We need preaching on the subject and we need a lot of it."

At the same meeting, Superior Judge Ambrose stated: "There are a lot of liquor licenses in this country. For a lot of poorer people, the only recreation they have is to go around to these joints. What effect does this have on our children?"

Judge Ambrose also saw television beer commercials as contributors to juvenile delinquency.

Banks of Allegheny Scene of Outing

Judging by the smiles, the first annual family picnic of Anderson Market employees was a happy event. The outing, held on the banks of the Allegheny, with Mr. Anderson as host, was declared a roaring success, and plans were made for a similar affair to be held next year. The meal, consisting of many delicacies, included ham, meat loaf, and spaghetti, and the time was spent in games and swimming. That's Mr. Anderson right in the middle of this Timesphoto, with Mrs. Anderson beside him.

Coroner's Jury Fails to Solve Airliner Mystery

San Bernardino, Calif. (P)—The mystery of what blew a big hole in the side of an airliner and hurled a heavily insured passenger to his death remained unsolved today.

A coroner's jury yesterday returned a verdict saying only that Saul F. Binstock, 62, a retired North Hollywood, Calif., jeweler, died of forceful ejection from the plane, flying 10,000 feet over the Mojave Desert. He formerly was a resident of Pittsburgh, Pa.

Eight witnesses were heard and the coroner said that four of the nine jurors were of the opinion Binstock set off the blast in the lavatory of the two-engine Western Air Lines plane.

Binstock's body was found on the desert last Friday, the day after the blast.

Chairman McClellan (D-Ark) said in advance it would be shown that "sweetheart contracts" between the unions and employers gave the workers only the legal minimum wage.

Today's hearings are a new phase of the committee's probe into New York area unions dominated by labor racketeer Johnny Dio, described as a close friend of James R. Hoffa, powerful Teamsters Union boss.

Previous testimony has brought out that Dio got the unions started as part of the old AFL United Auto Workers, but since has switched them into the Teamsters Union.

McClellan said Wednesday that Hoffa used Dio to help gain labor domination over New York and the Eastern Seaboard.

Manager of Local Airport Forced to Land Near Kane

A demonstration of some excellent flying ability was made early yesterday evening by Warren Airport Manager Mel Barron who was forced to land in an oat field near Kane.

Mel and student pilot B. Chapman of Kane were "joyriding" above Kane, with Chapman at the controls of his 5-place Stinson. About 6:45, when the plane set off to alight the Mt. Jewe Airport on an oil line blow.

As Mel hurriedly took over the controls, oil shot from a line the controllable-pitch propeller as clouded the windshield. Barron headed the plane down immediately, chose as his landing spot three fields end-to-end.

Reaching out the side window with his handkerchief, Mel kept the front windshield as clear as oil as he could. He glided over one set of wires, then touched down under more cables as the plane landed in the middle field rolled about 200 feet and stopped without mishap.

The men rode into Kane as Bud Maier of Warren picked up Barron and returned him. A mechanic will have to service the plane. Barron reports that neither oat crop nor Stinson was damaged in landing.

ERIE STRIKE CONTINUES

Erie (P)—Some 600 striking employees at the Marx Toy Co. Erie plant continued on strike today after union representative rejected a company wage increase offer. The representative rejected the six-cent-an-hour offer yesterday. The members of the International Assn. of Machinists have been on strike since June 1. Union officials did not say how much of a wage increase they were seeking.

NOT A METEOR

Bedford, (P)—Arthur L. Draper, director of programming at the Buhl Planetarium in Pittsburgh, says that an object which struck the earth near Bedford Wednesday probably was not a meteor. The object landed in the yard of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Koontz. Their 12-year-old son, Dean, told newsmen the object came over the mountains from the southwest.

Defeat Over Giants Places Cards On Top of the Heap In Sizzling National League Race

By ED WILKS
The Associated Press
Stan (The Man) Musial and Sad Sam Jones, an example of the old standbys and new faces who have made the St. Louis Cardinals hum, have the Redbirds perched atop the National League standings again.
Musial, 4-for-4 with a pair of two-run homers, and Jones, pitching a six-hit shutout, were all the Cards needed to move two percentage points past idle Milwaukee last night. But the Redbirds won it big, banging 16 hits against the New York Giants for an 8-0 job and their sixth straight success.
Brooklyn is third, 1½ games behind, after rapping the Chicago Cubs 12-3. Gil Hodges set a NL record with the 18th bases-loaded home run of his 12-year-career.
Cincinnati reclaimed fourth place from Philadelphia, rallying to beat the Phils 4-3.
In the American League, it's New York by four games after Washington bumped the second-place Chicago White Sox 5-4 while the Yankees were idle. Detroit gained a share of fourth place with Cleveland by defeating Boston 7-5 in the only other game scheduled.

Musial, who retired after six innings, passed Ty Cobb and took third place behind Babe Ruth and Lou Gehrig with 1,240 extra-base hits in his 16-year career.
The Dodgers, matching St. Louis' 21-10 record in the last 31 games, rapped 18 hits off loser Tom Poholsky and three relievers as the Cubs chipped in six errors. Sandy Koufax won his fifth with a four-hitter and 11 strikeouts.
Hodges drove in five runs and locked it up with his big smash off southpaw Dick Littlefield in the fifth after Ernie Banks' three-run homer had whittled the Brook lead.
The Tigers scored three in the ninth for a 7-1 yard, but Duke Maas needed relief from Harry Byrd and Frank Lary to win his

Indianapolis Boy Is Big Sensation In Hershey Tourney

Hershey, (P)—One of the most exciting young golfers in several years has turned up in the National Public Links Championship, a tournament which doesn't ordinarily produce great golfers.
He is 18-year-old Don Essig of Indianapolis who might reign tomorrow night as the youngest Public Links winner in 31 years.
Don isn't exactly an unknown in golf. He was winning matches in the public links and the U. S. junior amateur as far back as 1954. And he reached the fourth round of the pay-as-you-go championship two years ago. This summer he has won the Western junior and Indiana State junior titles plus some local events.
At 18 Essig, who is a college student at LSU, showed clear signs of golfing maturity when he beat Junior Buxbaum of Memphis, Tenn., the defending champion who is more than twice his age. It was the kind of a close, tense match where a youngster could easily crack up against an opponent who applied unyielding pressure. But at the 19th hole it was Buxbaum who hit the bad shot and Essig won.

National Football League Union Is Given Recognition

Washington (P)—The National Football League players union, hardly out of infancy, enjoyed unexpected recognition today. But it still faced uncertainties in getting along with pro football management.
Officials of nine clubs voiced approval when NFL Commissioner Bert Bell announced yesterday he would recognize and negotiate with the recently created NFL Players Association.
Spokesman for three other clubs didn't condemn Bell's action—but neither did they do handshakes as a result of it.
Bell chose a House Antitrust subcommittee hearing as the scene of his announcement.
Bell told the subcommittee the NFL constitution gave him full authority to bestow recognition.
George Preston Marshall, president of the Washington Redskins with concurrence of President George Halas of the Chicago Bears, argued Bell had no right to complete a contract or working agreement with any outside party without approval of 10 of the 12 NFL clubs. Marshall cited the league constitution and bylaws.
Paul Brown, coach and general manager of the Cleveland Browns, likewise suggested Bell's authority was a subject for "legal interpretation."

Porky Oliver Has a One-Stroke Lead In The All-American

By JERRY LISKA
Chicago (P)—Family man Ed (Porky) Oliver, who hasn't won a tournament for more than a year, was a one-stroke leader in the swift parade into today's second round of the $25,000 All-American golf tourney.
The 40-year-old Oliver, father of four, had a 6-under-par 66 yesterday at Tam O'Shanter, where a combined men's - women's, pro-amateur field of 2440 is sifting prizes.
Oliver, whose last triumph was in the 1956 Greenbriar at White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., had the pro help nipping his heels.
Robust Bill Casper, a 205-pounder from Bonita, Calif., was a stroke behind with 67, while four players, including popular Sammy Snead, were locked for third at 68.

In all 38, pro men shooters finished under Tam's 26-36-72 par figures. The 72-hole chase dangles a $3,500 first prize. This is merely a warmup for next week's $101,200 "World" championship, which has a $50,000 cash payoff for first place, golf's richest prize.

Los Angeles — Howard King, 188, Reno, Nev., outpointed Bob Albright, 215, Los Angeles, 10.
West Jordan, Utah — Don Fulmer, 162, West Jordan, topped Joe Mortenson, 158, Salt Lake City, 3.
Richmond, Calif. — Roger Rischner, 182, Oakland, Calif., outpointed Ruben Vargas, 191, Richmond, Calif., 12.

Musial Moves Up Among All Time Greats In Hitting

St. Louis (P)—Stan (The Man) Musial moved up again among major league baseball's all-time hitting greats last night, moving past Ty Cobb into third place in extra-base hits with 1,240.
Musial, in his 16th season, bettered Cobb's 1,139 total for 24 seasons with a pair of two-run homers in a perfect 4-for-4 night as the St. Louis Cardinals defeated New York's Giants 8-0 to regain the National League lead.
Only Babe Ruth, 1,336 and Lou Gehrig, 1,189 ever hit more career extra-base blows. Ruth did it in 22 years, Gehrig in 17.
Musial also claimed second place in all-time National League 1,860.

Matter of Fact

of former Prime Minister Guy Mollet, for a ceasefire followed by free elections; but this had proved delusive. Now another plan must be put forward, with better chances of success than the Mollet plan. And this was all the more urgent, he added, because the Algerian fighting was one of the major obstacles to the rather desperate, post-Suez American effort to bring reasonably stability to the troubled Middle East.

Thus far the British government has taken a line parallel to the Dulles line. On this matter, London and Washington seem to be acting in concert, for once in a way. Thus it seems likely that if France does not put forward new Algerian proposals of a sufficiently hopeful and constructive character, France will not have the support of either of the other major Western allies at the UN meeting.

If France goes into the UN Assembly with the whole Afro-Asian and Communist bloc against her and with no support from the other great Western allies, the result must be a truly appalling defeat.

The consequences are really incalculable. For how will France, for instance, respond to a ringing UN condemnation. Only one consequence, indeed, can be calculated with real assurance. The ensuing recriminations inside the Western alliance will be heard around the world.

Such being the future prospect if France does not put forward constructive Algerian proposals, the re-examination of the Algerian problem that is being conducted here assumes the widest possible significance. But as yet, it must be said, the re-examination has not produced the kind of new proposals Washington and London are devoutly praying for.

Prime Minister Mounoury is seeking to draft a law giving the broad framework of a new organization of Algeria. Thus far, however, the framework law does not comprise the minimum recognition of Algeria as a national entity that could conceivably satisfy the Tunisians, the Moroccans of the Algerian dissidents. Instead, the most favored proposal at present is to divide Algeria into three provinces, to give each province a measure of autonomy and an elected provincial assembly; but to keep in French hands effective control of Algeria as a whole.

The American and British governments have already let it be known that this plan will not command their active support. Strong forces are certainly at work within the French government to secure much bolder proposals. The Foreign Minister Christian Pineau has even sponsored discreet negotiations with the Algerian rebel leaders.

If former Prime Minister Guy Mollet (the real maker of the Bourges Mounoury government) swings over to the side of bold action this really may prove the beginning of a serious search for an agreed solution. But at present the betting is still against.

Former Resident of Clarendon Visiting Home Town Folks

"WALT" HUBER
—Timesphoto

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Huber, formerly of Clarendon, where they conducted the Huber Grocery store up until 17 years ago when they moved from there to High Point, N. C., have been visiting friends and relatives the past few days. Mr. Huber is in the chewing gum business in the southern state. They are accompanied by one of their two sons, Ronald, 16 years old. An older boy, Donald, is in the Medical service on Okinawa.

"Walt", it will be remembered was a well known ball player on teams in the Warren area about 50 years ago, playing with such clubs as Frenchy Duncan's 99's, Butter-Krusts and Independents.

"You don't appreciate Warren until you stay away from the town a few years," he said on a visit to the editor of The Times-Mirror. While in the editorial rooms he discovered a distant relative employed on the staff. Mrs. Alvin Albaugh, of Conewango Avenue, whom he had not seen for about five years.

Wearing a lapel button indicating he is a past president of the High Point Lions Club, Walt said he just concluded a busy year at the head of the organization.

Discussing baseball acquaintances of bygone days, he said he had inspected War Memorial Field, and lamented that it is not equipped with lights. High Point has a team in Class B Carolina League. Among friends he especially wanted to greet were Bill Yeager at the Community Discount, and Harry Danas, at Cozy Corner in Times Square.

Status of Park

worked side by side with Emmett Lynn and insisted the entire front, triangular section of his lawn was for the park.

The disagreements continued with claim and counter claim thrust back and forth. Meanwhile, interested men in Pittsfield took it upon themselves to add to the park by constructing a cement and wood bench behind the monument, further back on the property where the Lynn homestead was now lived in by tenants.

What happened next is not entirely clear. This much is certain, however: the bench was taken apart and some of its sections removed. Robert Lynn was charged with destroying public property and taken before Peace Justice C. Rex Thompson, with the charge brought by Pittsfield Township supervisors.

The peace justice found Mr. Lynn guilty in the hearing held early last summer and sentenced him to 60 days in jail and $50 fine. Mr. Lynn claimed he had only removed what had been erected on his own property and appealed. This June, Judge Flick granted the appeal and the court session was set for next Monday.

Interested Pittsfield residents claim that it was the wish of Emmett Lynn that the park should include the large triangular section of his lawn. His heir, Robert Lynn, worried now about access to a lot adjoining the homestead, claimed he owned all the lawn, but was willing to let the monument remain (but not with all the property claimed by the plaintiffs).

Mr. Lynn and his mother, who died in 1955, claimed they held title to the entire land area. Others say early deeds are inaccurate and that the actual property line makes the entire disputed area a Pittsfield Memorial Park.

Both sides claim they have made repeated offers of settlement which have been refused. Both are anxious to stay out of court, but feelings run high on both sides.

However, one thing is sure no matter what happens. Says Robert Lynn, "No matter how this case turns out, win or lose, that monument can stay where it is. I have no objection to it. I like it. But this is a legal test of rights."

YOUNGSVILLE

Youngsville — Broken straw Grange will meet next Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Marge Finlan. Mrs. Finlan and Mrs. R. L. Mead have returned from a week's trip into the Adirondacks and New England, visiting Watkins Glen, Corning Glass Works, Lake Placid, North Pole, and White Face Mountain. Crossing Lake Champlain, they continued into Vermont, thence to Boston for several days of sight-seeing. Another highlight was a boat trip to Cape Cod.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Clark, Centerville, are guests this week of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Clark.

Mrs. Fred Palmer, Torpedo, has moved into her home in Second street.

Many parents and friends of Scouts at Camp Olmsted took advantage of Visitors' Day, Wednesday afternoon and evening, to enjoy camp hospitality. A baseball game between Scouts and staff resulted in a decided victory for the boys, a bonfire and stunts staged by the various troops, along with camp cheers and songs, entertained the visitors until it was nearly time for "Taps".

Janet Martin, Cole Hill, has been visiting her cousin, Nancy Martin.

The Rev. Gregory Rowley and family will vacation during August in Jamestown, Va., where he will serve as assistant chaplain at Old Tower church.

Mr. and Mrs. William Overturf are enjoying a Canadian fishing trip.
